* A “Who’s Who” of St. Thomas More Parish Choirs

Caritas is a mixed choir (men and women) with organ, piano and solo instruments.

CHALICE is a contemporary mixed choir with piano, guitar, bass and solo instruments.

Cherubim is a choir for boys and girls of reading age through grade 7.

Concordia is a family-oriented choir with adults and youth (in some cases parents and their children.)

Extollere is a contemporary praise group with piano, guitar, bass and percussion.

Festival Choir sings at special parish liturgies and is comprised of musicians from all STM choirs and singers who are not in a particular choir.

Handchime Chorum is an ensemble for boys and girls grades 4-8 that plays handchimes (similar to handbells.) Singing is not required.

Knights of Columbus is a men’s choir with piano and guitar. (Membership in the Knights of Columbus is encouraged, but not required.)

Magnificat is a women’s choir with piano and solo instruments.

Resurrection Choir is a mixed choir that sings at funerals approximately once a month.

Saint John Paul II Youth Choir is a praise choir for grade 8-12 youth and adults w/piano, guitar, bass, drums and solo instruments.

For information about singing with a choir, contact Jeff McGarrity, St. Thomas More Director of Music, at jeffm@stthomasmore.org.
